GLASGOW, MISSOURI.

Thursday Morning, May 13, 1858.

Look for the X.

A cross (thus X) immediately before the name, signifies that the time paid for has expired.

ACCEPTABLE.—Last week just after we had gone to press, we received from Mrs.
E. H. a beautiful bouquet, made up from a variety of flowers, presenting a pleasing prospect to the eye, and exhaling an odor that was spring like, notwithstanding the chilliness of the weather. Also a lot of Asparagus, exceeding in size any that has ever come under our observation.

Mr. STORRS laid on our table a few days since, some excellent radishes, the size of which indicated a more advanced state of the season.

Our better-half desires us to return thanks to Capt. De Haven, of the "South West," for a huge cake, handsomely iced, ornamented, and "imprinted" "Union Line," together with a bottle of sparkling wine: the former being in her judgment no less pleasant to the taste than beautiful to the eye, and reflecting credit on the architect;— while the latter, in our humble judgment, and unexcited taste, must have been equal, if not superior to that referred to by the poet, when he wrote

"It cheers the soul, revives the old; inspires
The young, make Weakness forget its toil, And fear her danger; opens a new world, When this, the present, falls."

THE MISSOURI EDUCATOR, is the title of a new Magazine, just started at Jefferson City, by Thos. J. Henderson, Esq. It is to be published Monthly, and will be mainly devoted to the great Educational interests of the State. The State Superintendent of Common Schools will make the Educator the official medium through which decisions will be published on questions answered, &c.
Terms.—One Dollar per annum, in advance.

Mr. French, Clerk of the good steamer South-West, has our thanks for files of late papers. She will pass down to-day, and all who want to go below cannot do better than take her.

A NEW PAPER.—S. R. Raymond, who has heretofore been connected with the Alexandria Delta, has issued a prospectus for a new Independent Political Newspaper, to be printed at that place, which will advocate the cause of Free White Labor, in Missouri. Mr. R. has heretofore acted with the American party, and we regret that its conservative principles found so little favor with him. Blair and Brown will in future be his associates.

The American Party is in no wise responsible for the slavery agitation of the Democrats and Republicans. Agitation is their meat and drink. Let the Americans stand firm, nominate candidates, and call upon conservative men to join them. They are in a position to be useful to the country.

ABANDONMENT OF CONGRESS.—The latest from Washington says: "It is understood between the President and the democratic leaders, that Congress shall not adjourn until the 15th of June."

The House committee on territories have agreed to report a bill organizing a territorial government for Nevada, the western part of Utah; including the rich Carson valley.

The Courier, published at Albany, Gentry county, in this State advocates free labor, and favors slavery emancipation.

We have been expecting to hear from our friends at Fayette, in reference to a county meeting, and a re-organization of the American forces. Will they talk over the matter, and make some suggestions.— People can be seen there from all parts of the county.

May Day Celebration.

An account of the May Day celebration, by the Young Ladies of the Female Seminary, was received too late for insertion. Our space is limited, and articles of any length should be handed in on Mondays.

The Kansas City "Journal of Commerce" sharply rebukes the "Republican" for arranging political matters for the Democracy in the Fifth District. The Journal is for a Democratic candidate, while it gives Mr. Woodson due credit for aiding the administration on the Kansas question.

PEACE TO THE COUNTRY.—The Democracy assured us that the Kansas-Nebraska bill would give peace to the country, and forever settle slavery agitation. That bill increased agitation, and slavery entered largely into the Presidential election. They then told the people to vote for Buchanan, and peace would surely follow. Many persons who had never voted with the Democracy, voted for Buchanan, on this ground, but peace was not found. Congress has been engaged five months on the slavery question, connected with the admission of Kansas into the Union, and now that the question is disposed of, the President, and leading Democrats tell us peace is at last found—but it is the same falsehood they have been telling all the time, as the people will find out. Wise, Douglas, Forney, and hosts of other Democrats, denounce the last peace adjusted, and the Buchanan Democrats denounce them as Black Republicans, and thus another agitation is already inaugurated. How much longer will the people put faith in Democratic promises and pledges.

Agricultural College.

The House of Representatives passed a bill which grants six millions three hundred and forty thousand acres of land to be apportioned to each State—equal to 20,000 acres for each Senator and Representative in Congress to which the States are now respectively entitled. The proceeds of the sales of the lands to be invested in stocks of the United States, or of the States, or some other safe stocks, the money so invested to constitute a perpetual fund, the interest of which shall be inviolably appropriated by each State to the endowment, support, and maintenance of at least one college, where the leading object shall be, without excluding other scientific or classical studies, to teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanic arts, in such manner as the Legislature of the States may prescribe, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in the several States and professions of life.

The Missouri delegation, (except Blair,) voted against the bill. It passed, 105 to 100.

A Free Labor Candidate in the Third District.

The Alexandria Delta of the 6th, says: It has been thought until now, that the Leocompton Swindlers in this district were to have the congressional race all their own way; but we are most happy to inform the Independent voters of the third district of Missouri, that there will be an anti-Le-compton Free Labor candidate for Congress. A number of able and distinguished champions of Popular Sovereignty and Gradual Emancipation, will make a thorough canvass of the district and speak in every part of it, in behalf of the congressional candidate—whose name will be announced in due time.

Should the above announcement prove true the American Party must put a candidate on the track, forthwith. With so radical a man as Clark, and one equally radical opposing him, the Americans, Whigs, and Union Democrats, who occupy a Conservative position, and are alike opposed to the agitating ultraisms of Northern and Southern Democracy; all, in short, who are opposed to a strictly slavery-agitation canvass, will desire to have a candidate in the field who will reflect their sentiments, and by whose election, agitation and agitators, will be buried in a common grave—and buried so deep that they will never be heard of again. We have Americans qualified to discharge this duty; there are Whigs competent to the task, and non-agitation Democrats equally qualified and competent.

Let all such stand by their arms, ready to move in concert, and strike the fatal blow.

A Murderer at Large.

Gov. Stewart has pardoned Bob O'Brien, and he is now at large. It will be recollected he was sentenced ten years for murdering Brand. He has been in the Penitentiary two years. Rowdism will look up in St. Louis.

Superintendent of Common Schools.

A School Superintendent is to be elected at the August election. Mr. W. B. Stark, present incumbent, is a candidate for re-election. John G. Provines, of Fulton, is also a candidate.

Gen. HARNEY passed up Monday night, on the steamer Kate Howard.

Those who want Oysters, Peaches, Prunes, Scotch Ale, (bottled) or Family Ale, (in kegs) will find a good supply at the store of ROBINSON, TATUM & Co., as also a general assortment of Family articles. We speak by the card. Those who have use for the coarser necessities of life, such as Sugar, Coffee, Salt, Liquors, fine and common, will find them well stocked.
Don't take our word, but call.

TRAVELING.—A Wm. Anderson, of Charlottesville, stole some money and land warrants, from a Mr. Honey, last week, and was committed to jail for Grand Larceny. He is in the Fayette jail.

Senator EVANS, of South Carolina, died very suddenly, at Washington, on the 7th. Both Houses of Congress adjourned on the 8th, after adopting the usual resolutions.

DECLINED.—Judge Salisbury, of Charlottesville, declines the candidacy for the Legislature, for reasons not necessary to make public.

[From the New York Herald.]

The Emancipation Agitation in Missouri.

Some of our southern exchanges are making a dreadful outcry over the emancipation agitation in Missouri. But what of it? Should this agitation result in the abolition of slavery in that state will it dissolve the union—or reduce the price of niggers in Virginia?—or wither up the cotton crop of Georgia? Not a bit of it.— The question of slavery or no slavery is purely a state question. At the outset every state in the union was a slave state; but in one after another of the states where slave labor "could not be made to pay," slavery has been abolished, and under the same law, when it is discovered that free white labor pays better in Missouri than black slave labor, slavery must back out.— That is all. Thus, very likely during the present generation, black slave labor will be superseded by the overwhelming pressure of free white labor, not only in Missouri, but also in Kentucky, Virginia, Maryland and Delaware; and against any of these states adopting free white labor in lieu of slave labor, no legitimate complaint can be made. It is purely a matter of state policy and state sovereignty. But while state sovereignty and the law of dollars and cents have regulated, and will regulate the metes and bounds of slave labor, the same law of the almighty dollar will keep the union together, because north and south it pays. Niggers or no niggers, the union is secure while it pays. Let Missouri go ahead and do as she likes. She cannot change the climate of South Carolina.

The above is from the New York Herald, the administration organ in the commercial and financial metropolis of the United States. It treats the negro question com-mercially and financially, which is proper, and preferable to mixing it up with politics, as democratic demagogues and office seekers are in the habit of doing. When ever slave labor ceases to be profitable in Missouri, it will be banished, as it was in other States. It is a question for our hemp and tobacco growers to solve, and they are not likely to abandon slave labor so long as those articles pay the highly remunerative prices they have paid, for many years.— There is no sense in political agitation—eliminate, dollars and cents, will abolish or perpetuate slavery, just as the superior economy, intellect and interest of the white race shall determine.

"ALWAYS EXCEPTING BLAIR"—The
"Nationals," in their public meetings, endorse the delegation from Missouri, "always excepting Blair." They put Blair in Congress, perhaps thinking he would make a fine scape-goat, over which to sing praise to their own party. But for their action, Luther M. Kennett would have been in Congress, yet they preferred the Black Republican to an American, who was sound on the slavery question. They wanted a Black Republican of our own State, high in office, to butt against: it was one of their modes of keeping down agitation. Clark wouldn't have Blair out of Congress for anything—Blair is meat and drink for him. By speaking against Blair, he will forever "crush out agitation!"

The intelligent citizen will perceive that this compromise, so mislabeled, provides that Kansas can only be admitted into the Union as a slave State.

Senator's Views.

Mr. Douglas said: That glorious band of Democrats, who acted with him in Congress and out of Congress, have achieved a triumph. What the consequence will be of the position he has taken he knows not, but if he cannot remain in public life with the principles he maintains, he would retire to private life, where he could enjoy the approval of his conscience.

Mr. Hunter, in advocating the report of the committee, said that the bill now under consideration, and the original bill, acknowledged the binding obligation of the Leocom-pton Constitution. Both act on the principle of recognizing no right to submit the Constitution to the people. The ordinance and nothing else is submitted. There is no such thing as submitting the Constitution.
They acknowledged no power to change or modify the Constitution, except in the way indicated in that instrument; and, therefore, he and his friends, in advocating the proposition, preserved their consistency.

Mr. Green, of Missouri, in advocating the report, took the same ground as Mr.
Hunter, that the principle for which the Senate had contended, of not submitting the Leocompton Constitution to the people, was fully preserved in the bill prepared by the conference.

LECTURES ON SOUTH AMERICA.—Mr.
Wm. G. Dix, formerly Secretary of Legation of the United States at Quito, South America, delivered two Lectures in this place, the present week. His descriptions of the country, climate, and people, are based on personal observation, delivered in pleasant style, and are entertaining and instructive. He goes from here to Fayette, and we commend him to our friends there.

ADVERTISEMENTS.—Read them, Lawyers, Doctors, Merchants, Mechanics, Speculators, and every body. Information and profit combined.

THE ENGLISH BILL.—The English bill has passed both Houses of Congress by the following vote: Senate, 31 yeas to 22 nays; House, 112 yeas to 103 nays.

The Americans of Ralls county held a mass meeting on the 3rd, and adopted resolutions affirming their adherence to American Principles—their opposition to slavery agitation—their unshaken confidence in Mr. Anderson, and their determination to support him for Congress, either with or without a formal nomination. They appointed delegates to a senatorial and county Convention.

MARRIED.

DONALD—DONNAN.—On the 28th ult., Mr.
Samuel Donald, of this city, and Miss Isabella Donnan, of Petersburg, Va.

DIED!

On the 9th, Mr. CHARLES WILKINSON, one of the oldest inhabitants of Howard county.
At the residence of Capt. L. S. Edkins, in Howard county, Mo., on the evening of May 2d, at half past 12 o'clock, WILLIAM COLLINS, formerly of Greene county, Va., in his 71st year.

A sleep in Jesus, blessed sleep.
From which none ever wake to weep.
Banner and Republic please copy.

In this county, at the residence of Gerard Robinson, Mr. JOHN W. ROBINSON, aged 37 years.

In Boone county, on the 24th ult., Mrs. LUCY BALL, wife of Hiram Ball, of Huntsville, and daughter of Col. M. H. Horner, of Randolph county.

Col. Forney on the Leocompton Conference.

Col. Forney of the Philadelphia Press, the man who did more to secure Buchanan's election than any other single individual, thus speaks of the Conference Report, which was adopted by Congress:—

"Leocompton, with its protection and perpetuation of Slavery, may be made the Constitution of Kansas with a population men themselves, of not more than 36,000; while, if the people reject it, and proceed to make a Constitution of their own, they will be kept knocking at the doors of Congress until they have attained the requisite majority of population! The English bill, in order to secure the support of the Southern extremists, omits that portion of the original Senate bill reported by Senator Green, upon which so much stress was laid for the purpose of capturing weak Democrats, that proclaimed the doctrine that the people of Kansas could immediately proceed to alter the Leocompton Constitution outside of the provisions of the Constitution itself. You will recollect that, on this theory, powerful appeals have been made to the people of the North to agree to Leocompton. Mr. Buckalew, of our State Senate, based his plausible, yet unsound, report upon it, while John Van Buren and others rung the changes upon it until it was elevated into a new article of the Democratic faith. But now Mr. English, in order to obtain the support of the seventy-six Southern Democrats in the House, who lately voted to strike out that provision, deliberately expunges it from the new programme, and so leaves Le-compton purely and simply a Pro-Slavery Constitution."

"This plan is the inauguration not only of a new, but a most dangerous principle.
It is lying in the face of the entire action of the Democratic party. No man who votes for it from a free State can ever expect to stand before the awful tribunal of popular indignation and investigation. In 1855, the entire Democratic party voted for the admission of Kansas, when the number of her population was far below what it is at the present day, and in 1856 the Administration planted itself upon the theory that the Kansas-Nebraska bill was an enabling act of itself, and now, to cap the climax, we have Mr. English coming forward with a proposition to admit Kansas into the Union with a Pro-Slavery Constitution, in the face of the admission that the population of the Territory is but 36,000; while, in the same bill, he takes care to insert a prohibition against her admission under any other Constitution until she has attained a new and increased ratio of population!"
